

BAROSSA VALLEY

The Barossa Valley, with its strong German heritage, is a place full of character. The region has a long history of making full-bodied reds, robust whites and fortified wine. Located 70km north of Adelaide, the Barossa Valley has a unique beauty of its own.

JACOB'S CREEK

The Jacob's Creek history spans three centuries with original vine plantings in 1847. Today the Jacob's Creek Cellar Door is a leading wine tourism site located in the heart of the Barossa Valley.
