About Local Sauce Tours

Local Sauce Tours allows visitors to experience Sydney and Brisbane like seasoned locals with our award-winning tours. We aim to immerse you in the city's vibrant culture while exploring remarkable independently-owned bars, restaurants, and cafes, all while enjoying captivating stories about the area.

We deliberately keep our tour groups small, with a maximum of 12 guests. This intimate size fosters connections among participants, ensuring everyone has a blast. Whether you're a solo traveller or new to the city, you will make new friends during your tour.

Our tours are far from ordinary. We aim to create an atmosphere where you feel like you're spending time with a group of newfound friends, all led by a knowledgeable host who effortlessly guides the experience and shares intriguing stories. Join us and discover Sydney or Brisbane in a truly unique and memorable way.

SYDNEY TOURS

Ultimate Sydney Walking Tour

Departs: Daily

Departure time:

Peak season (Oct to Mar): Daily at 10 am; additional 2:30 pm departure on Fridays & Saturdays

Low season (Apr to Sep): Daily at 10 am

Duration: 3.5 hours

Start location: Customs House, 31 Alfred St, Sydney. We meet in front of Customs House, on the right-hand side as you face the building (near the steps and access ramp).

End location: "The Squire's Landing", northern end of the Overseas Passenger Terminal, Circular Quay. We finish a 10-minute walk from where we started.

Age range: This tour is not recommended for children under 12 years of age, as it involves 3 hours of stories about Sydney's history and around 4km of walking, which can often be a little much for our younger guests. Please contact us if you need more information.

Accessibility: This tour involves some inclines and uneven surfaces, but the route can be adjusted to suit guests with mobility concerns. Please contact us before booking so that we can ensure your clients are well catered for. We would not normally recommend the public tour for guests who cannot comfortably cover 4 kilometres, are in wheelchairs or have vision impairments, but amendments can be made for guests if booked as a private tour.

1 April 2026 - 31 March 2027
Rates per person	Adult	Child
RRP	$80	$70
Nett Rate	$60	$52.50

Discover the story of Sydney on this expert-led small-group walking tour, while hitting all of the city's main attractions.

Perfect for those who have just arrived, as well as locals and those who want to go deeper in learning about Australian history, culture, society & First Nations people.

Starting from Customs House, you'll hear about Sydney's colonisation by the British – and how their arrival impacted the original inhabitants, the Cadigal people of the Eora nation.

Your guide will provide you with a range of perspectives on Sydney's development, introducing Aboriginal people, British governors, convicts & entrepreneurs, and other multicultural migrants, as you weave your way through the city centre.

Your tour ends with a walk through part of The Rocks, finishing at a popular brewery with harbour views of both the Bridge and the Opera House.

With a maximum of 12 guests, you'll be able to walk the streets in a small group so you're not fighting to see, hear your guide or stay on the footpath. You'll also receive heaps of recommendations to make the most of your time in Sydney: food, nightlife, art and much more – stuff you won't find in any guidebook!

On this walk, you'll visit, see and learn about:

- Sydney Opera House
- Harbour Bridge
- The Rocks
- Hyde Park Barracks
- St Mary's Cathedral
- The "Rum Hospital"
- Queen Victoria Building
- Royal Botanic Garden
- General Post Office (GPO)
- ANZAC Cenotaph
- The Tank Stream
- And much more!

What's included

- 3.5-hour guided activity
- 1 classic Aussie snack/biscuit
- Craft beer (or soft drink or juice)
- Map with recommendations
- Group photos

Important note: You'll cover around 4 km on this tour. We walk at a leisurely pace, but comfortable shoes and a water bottle are a must. If you cannot comfortably walk 4 km over 3 hours or require additional assistance, please book a private tour.

Sydney by Night - Secret Bars & Stories

Departs: Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday & Saturday

Departure time: 6:30 pm

Duration: 3.5 hours

Start location:

Tuesday & Friday: Queen Victoria Building;

Wednesday: "I Have A Dream" mural, Newtown;

Thursday: Customs House;

Saturday: Stanley St, Darlinghurst.

End location:

Tuesday: Sydney CBD, close to Town Hall and Wynyard train stations;

Wednesday: Newtown, close to Newtown train station;

Thursday: The Rocks, close to Circular Quay;

Saturday: Surry Hills, close to Central and Museum train stations.

Age requirements: 18+ (while most participants are in their 20s, 30s and 40s, this is not a "backpacker pub crawl"; all guests over 18 are welcome, and the tour attracts a range of ages, nationalities and backgrounds).

Accessibility: The Tuesday & Wednesday routes are wheelchair-friendly; however, Thursday, Friday and Saturday night routes are not. We can also provide this tour as a private tour with an amended wheelchair-friendly route. This tour is suitable for guests with other accessibility needs (including vision, hearing, etc); however, we recommend a carer to assist throughout the tour.

This tour is 18+ years only.

Drink and discover on Sydney's best nightlife tour! Perfect for solos, couples, friends, and locals of all ages who want a fun and unique night out exploring Sydney's best small bars.

Over 3.5 hours, your expert host will take you to 3 or 4 different bars, including very well-hidden ones and some of Sydney's top-rated bars. We include the first drink (beer or wine), then leave it up to you to choose how you want to enjoy the night. There's no pressure to drink, so if you prefer not to, we promise you'll still have fun! As we explore, you'll hear a few fun stories, covering crime, local legends & other "pub trivia" worthy tidbits.

On Tuesday nights, we explore some of Sydney's best bars around the CBD, with a focus on the "Bermuda's Triangle" of small bars spread across York, Clarence and Kent (YCK) street precinct.

On Wednesday nights, come check out quirky Newtown with us, including Enmore Road (recently voted as one of the coolest streets in the world).

On Thursday nights, we hit up Circular Quay and The Rocks, where a bunch of fantastic new cocktail bars have opened up in recent years.

On Friday nights, you'll have fun in the southern end of the city centre, including a visit to the Chinatown night markets and Thaitown, the hidden gem of Sydney's CBD.

And on Saturday nights, we head to our favourite stomping grounds of Surry Hills and Darlinghurst, so you can party like the weekend it is!

After the tour, we'll provide you with a map link to all the bars and places visited throughout the night, plus some extra spots to check out. This is your ticket to the best night out in Sydney!

What's included

- 3.5-hour guided activity
- Reservations at 3 – 4 small or hidden bars
- 1 alcoholic drink (beer or wine only)
- Group photos
- Map with recommendations

Chinatown – Street Food & Stories

Departs: Friday & Sunday (additional Wednesday departure from Jan to March)

Departure time: 11:30 am (6:30 pm on Wednesdays from January to March)

Duration: 2.5 hours

Start location: Outside Paddy's Markets, directly across from the southern end of Dixon St mall (opposite the Covent Garden hotel and Emperor's Garden restaurant).

End location: Outside Paddy's Markets, at the red gates at the southern end of Dixon St.

Age range: This tour is great for all ages, including children. Given the content of the stories and foods sampled, this tour is suitable for children aged 8 and above.

Accessibility: This tour is wheelchair-friendly and accessible for guests with vision impairments.

1 April 2026 - 31 March 2027
Rates per person	Adult	Child
RRP	$85	$70
Nett Rate	$63.75	$52.50

Sydney's Chinatown is full of secrets and excellent restaurants, and on this experience, you're going to see and taste a bit of everything!

On this tour, you'll sample a range of street foods and snacks from some of Chinatown's best restaurants, with a minimum of 4 food samples included. All samples are snacks or street foods that represent different parts of China and are designed to be eaten on the move. Vegetarians, vegans and guests with other dietary requirements are more than welcome – just let us know in advance.

This tour has a strong focus on uncovering Sydney's long connection with China and the contributions Chinese-Australians have made to the community. You'll learn more in 2.5 hours about Australia's Chinese community than you could possibly imagine, and "pub trivia" style games will keep it interactive and fun.

At the end of the tour, you'll get a souvenir to take home, plus a great map and guide to Chinatown, covering all the best restaurants and what to order.

What's included

- 2.5-hour guided activity
- 4 or 5 regional Chinese street foods
- Photos shared after the tour
- Guide to Chinatown's best restaurants

Newtown Chewtown – Food & Street Art

Departs:

Peak season (Oct to March): Wednesday & Sunday

Low season (April to Sep): Sunday only

Departure time: 2:30 pm (low season) or 3:00 pm (peak season)

Duration: 3 hours

Start location: We meet at the iconic “I Have A Dream” mural at 301 King St.

End location: We finish at a craft brewery, a 5-minute walk from Newtown station.

Age range: This tour is great for all ages, including teenagers. Although we visit a brewery at the end of the tour, guests under 18 are allowed, provided they are accompanied by a parent or guardian (or you can choose to end the tour before the brewery). Given the types of food sampled, this tour is suitable only for children aged 12 and above (or those with more “sophisticated” palates).

Accessibility: This tour is wheelchair-friendly and accessible for guests with vision impairments.

1 April 2026 - 31 March 2027
Rates per person	Adult	Child
RRP	$90	$80
Nett Rate	$67.50	$60

Eat your way through Newtown like a local and check out amazing street art!

Newtown is a truly diverse neighbourhood, and on this experience, you’re going to see and taste a bit of everything. You’ll start at the iconic “I Have A Dream” mural on King St, where your host will give you a run-down on what makes Newtown so special.

You’ll then set off to sample some of Newtown’s multicultural cuisine, with 4 food stops along the way (all food included). Cuisine options include Egyptian, Turkish, Italian, Japanese, “Australian” and more! Vegetarians and vegans are sorted too – Newtown is famous for its many vegan-friendly restaurants. Your host will point out some of the neighbourhood’s best street art as you explore the area.

You’ll finish at a popular brewery for a shared tasting paddle or a glass of craft beer. Your host will point out several other restaurants if you’re still hungry; otherwise, enjoy a drink with your fellow guests.

What’s included:

- 3-hour guided activity
- 4 different snacks/samples from different restaurants
- 1 alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink
- Photos shared after the tour
- Map with our personal recommendations

Ultimate Australian Food Tour (Semi-Private Tour)

Departs: Monday to Friday (Saturday & Sunday available for private bookings only)

Departure time: 11:00 am

Duration: 3.5 hours

Start location: Customs House, 31 Alfred St, Sydney. We meet in front of Customs House, on the right-hand side as you face the building (near the steps and access ramp).

End location: Midden by Mark Olive, Sydney Opera House, Bennelong Point.

Age range: This tour is not recommended for children under 12 years of age as it involves 3 hours of walking and eating a range of foods, and covers approximately 2.5 km. Children aged 12 and above are welcome to join; however, the child rate is the same as the adult rate. Infants under 4 are free of charge.

Accessibility: This tour is wheelchair-friendly and accessible for guests with vision impairments. We cover approximately 2.5 km, but the route is mostly flat. There are some stairs and inclines, but we can amend the route to avoid all stairs and limit the inclines. The total walking time is approximately 45 minutes, with plenty of stops along the way. If your guests have accessibility needs, please contact us before booking, so that we have advance notice.

What is Semi-Private? Semi-Private means that this tour is capped at 6 guests, unlike our other tours, which have a maximum of 12 guests. This means that if you're booking for a group of 2 people, you may only have one other group on the tour, which could be 2 to 4 people.

1 April 2026 - 31 March 2027
Rates per person	Adult	Child
RRP	$175	$175

Taste your way through Australia's history on this expert-led Sydney walking tour, where each bite helps tell the story of a nation's evolving food culture.

Perfect for those who have just arrived, as well as locals and those who want to go deeper in learning about Australian food, history, culture and more.

Starting from Customs House, your guide will give you a brief introduction to Sydney's history and the significance of where the tour starts. You'll then head off for a coffee and learn about Australia's casual, healthy and deeply embedded cafe culture – and how this has now been exported around the world.

Afterwards, you'll venture into Sydney's city centre, making your way towards the Queen Victoria Building before looping back towards Circular Quay, with a range of mouth-watering food stops along the way. To save time, we might take the light rail back to Circular Quay (at your own expense).

You'll finish at an Aboriginal-led restaurant under the sails of the Sydney Opera House with harbour views of the Bridge, with a shared grazing platter of native Australian foods.

There is the option of an additional drinks package for $35 per person, which includes 2 alcoholic drinks at the final venue (non-commissionable).

What's included

- 3.5-hour guided activity
- 6 to 8 food samples
- Coffee (or tea)
- Map link with recommendations
- Photos shared after the tour

Foods & drinks sampled on this tour (indicative only)

- Flat white coffee
- Vegemite toast
- Smashed avocado on toast with native ingredients
- Home-made Anzac biscuits
- Gourmet meat pies
- Strawberry watermelon cake
- Sydney rock oysters
- A surprise Asian-Australian fusion dish
- Native Australian foods, including kangaroo, emu and crocodile
- Australian craft beer (optional drinks package inclusion)
- Local wine or gin (optional drinks package inclusion)

On this walk, you'll also visit, see and/or learn about:

- Sydney Opera House
- Sydney Harbour Bridge
- Queen Victoria Building
- The Strand Arcade
- General Post Office (GPO)
- ANZAC Cenotaph
- The Tank Stream
- & much more!
